

Watermelon craft project completed by Liberty Summer Camp participants

How many watermelon seeds are on each slice?

Be your child's playmate!

- Play is crucial for young children's social and academic growth. As a parent, you are your child's first playmate.
- Give your child objects or materials to play with, and see what he or she can do with them. You can begin something, such as stacking blocks, but then let your child try on his or her own. Your child will love you to watch and comment on what they are doing!

Help your child get ready for school!

- If your child will be attending an educational program in the fall, begin talking about how much fun they will have at school. Let your child know that school is a place where they will make friends and learn.
- Get your child on a regular sleeping schedule where they are waking up in time for school and going to bed early enough to get 10-12 hours of sleep.

Judy Center Events

- Take A Peak At Your Seat – An event for children attending pre-kindergarten at Liberty Elementary School, and their families, to meet their new teachers and see their classroom.
